

This group of wounded warriors from Fort Campbell Kentucky Warriors Transition Battalion are shown enjoying their visit to Bridgecreek Trophy Hunts last weekend. From left to right, front row: James Mullins, Adam Peacock, Ronnie Gullion, Todd Shaw, Bryan Price, and David Jacks. Back row, left to right: Bryon Kelly, Chris Mollands, Mike Collins, Bill Grimes, Nate Halsey, David Allard, Billy Hassler, and James Salter. The group enjoyed a day of hunting and two days of great fellowship, for which they expressed their sincere appreciation.

Bridgecreek Trophy Hunts Treats Wounded Warriors To Weekend Of Fun & Fellowship

Bridgecreek Trophy Hunts, in conjunction with The Christian Outdoorsmen, sponsored a weekend hunt for a group of wounded warriors from the Fort Campbell, Kentucky Warriors Transition Battalion last weekend.

This group was composed of soldiers who had served in Iraq, and had sustained wounds, injuries, or other illness as a result of their service.

Marsha and Jeff Molands of Bridgecreek Trophy Hunts, commented: "This is a small way in which we can give back something to these heroes who served us and our country and made some really big sacrifices to do so."

The Christian Outdoorsmen are a group of Christian men who get together with the sole purpose of bringing God's message to someone who otherwise might not hear it.

What a perfect setting, in a shooting house or up in a tree stand with all God's beauty surrounding you, to give your testimony to someone or just extend your friendship and love to someone. As we all know, from one hunter to another there is a special bond.

Christian Outdoorsmen are a non-profit organization which provides hunts for handicapped and underprivileged children, men, and women. This group sponsors several events throughout the year, with hunts for deer, turkey, wild hogs, etc., and works closely with the Wheelin' Sportsmen and also the Hunting for the Hungry.

It is a special blessing to be able to spread God's word in this special way.

Everyone who participates in one of these events comes away feeling truly blessed.